Temporary Total Disability

If Injury to the Insured Person results in Temporary Total Disability within the period between the date of Injury and the policy Anniversary/Termination date, the Company will pay the Temporary Total Disability Benefit as described, subject to satisfaction of any applicable Waiting Period as shown in the Schedule of Benefits. The Waiting Period starts on the date of the Accident that caused such Injury. If Injury to the Insured Person, resulting in Temporary Total Disability, subsequently results in Continuous Total Disability, the Company will pay the Continuous Total Disability Benefit specified in the Schedule of Benefits, provided:
